Keynote Address

Stephen Lewis, veteran diplomat and UN Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS in Africa, will present the keynote address at the XIVth International Congress of Dietetics. The Congress theme, Sharing Global Perspectives, Building Our Common Ground, corresponds with Mr. Lewis' interests in world health issues and the role health professionals play in finding solutions to global health problems. The address will be on Friday, May 28, 2004 at Navy Pier in Chicago.

Formerly Deputy Executive Director of UNICEF, Canada's Ambassador to the United Nations and a prominent labor relations arbitrator, Lewis is a world renowned advisor and commentator on public issues. He has served in numerous positions including Special Advisor on Africa to the UN Secretary General.

Stephen Lewis received his post secondary education at the universities of Toronto and British Columbia. He has served in the Ontario legislature and as provincial leader of the New Democratic Party. He holds fourteen honorary degrees from Canadian universities and has been presented with numerous awards and honors.
